

MoE mulls human rights in school curricula

Khaleej Times - 11 December, 2007

The Ministry of Education (MoE) is mulling inclusion of Human Rights as a subject in the curriculum of UAE schools, it was stated yesterday by Dr Mohammed Al Murr, head of the General Department of Human Rights Care, at a symposium titled “Towards community awareness of human rights.”

The symposium was organised by the Department of Human Rights of Dubai Police in association with the Switzerland Embassy and the Geneva Institute for Human Rights, on the occasion of the International Human Rights Day on December 10.
